LONDON CAB-DRIVERS

London cab-drivers are very proud of their profession. It isn't easy to become a qualified cab driver in London. You have to pass a series of tests called "The Knowledge" before you can get a cab-driver's license in this famous city.

5 In order to pass the tests, you have to memorize the names and locations of 25,000 streets I and around central London. Drivers have to know where all the places, like hospitals theatres, hotels and train stations are located. A good driver also needs to know the fastest way to get from one place to another in this big city.

10 Candidates for a cab-driver's license drive around London for a few hours every day to prepare themselves for the tests. They often ride a motorbike, learning the many streets and routes as they ride. It can take a whole year to prepare for "The Knowledge".

15 At the moment, there are about 20,000 qualified cab-drivers in London. Another 3,000 candidates are working hard to become qualified cab-drivers. So if you ever take a ride in one of those famous black London cabs, you can be sure your driver knows the way.
